

Arbitration Clause in a Building Contract

All disputes or questions concerning the works or the execution or maintenance concerning the works or the constructions or meaning thereof or the specifications drawings, plan, instructions, directions hereinbefore referred to or as to the quality of any work carried out or any other matter arising out of or connected with or incidental to this contract or the works to be executed or payments to be made in pursuance thereof, or the rights, duties or obligations of any person in relation to this contract including right to claim damages or loss or interest on any amount due shall be referred to the sole Arbitration of Mr... or the person nominated by him (or, to the Arbitration of the one or more Arbitrators one to be nominated by each party to the dispute the total number not being even} and the Arbitration shall be governed by the Arbitration Act, for the time being in force.